FOR MT. STERLING.

We have information that our people will be given an opportunity within a few days to take stock in a company that would make Mt. Sterling its place of business. There will not be any ground doors to it and men may be sure that capital and labor will bring the results. Are you ready?

Electric railroads are webbing the country. They will be about us and many of our business men are taking a sensible view of the inevitable; that the roads be invited here and that we work for our interests locating factories enlarging our stores and in every way pressing our interests. It is useless to stand back and object for such a course would only kill our city.

AMEND THE CONSTITUTION.

If our representatives consider the material interests of Kentucky they will take steps towards amending the constitution so that counties may exercise their right to vote aid to railway companies by taking stock, enabling roads to penetrate rich mineral and timber fields of Eastern Kentucky. But for this mistake, barring the people against this privilege, by our law makers of ten years ago many of our towns would be cities, the energetic man would be wealthy, churches would be free of debt, our public schools would have no superiors in any of the States and pay rolls would make business continuous and thrifty.

FOR PRISON COMMISSIONER

Mr. John D. Wyatt, of Ewing, editor of the Ewing Enquirer, was in the county last week, leaving for Louisville Monday. Mr. Wyatt is a son of Lemuel Wyatt, who was a son of Hayden Wyatt, deceased, of this county, and is, therefore a Montgomery man. At present while editor, he is also County Judge of Fleming county, by appointment of Governor Beckham. Mr. Wyatt is a candidate before the Legislature for the office of Prison Commissioner. A Montgomery man, a true Democrat, fearless in the discharge of duty, a brother editor who has been faithful as a journalist, unfaltering in the discharge of honest convictions and unrelenting in war against lawlessness we commend him as faithful steward, worthy of the position he asks.

As a Prison Commissioner he would have a work to perform, and in this he would be unlike the official who is merely in for emoluments. It would be in the interest of the Commonwealth and the Prison that he would labor, throwing about the prisoner such influences that would make him a better man than when he entered prison walls.

Berry Howard Caught.

Berry Howard, who, with his relatives, Jim Howard and others, was indicted for complicity in the murder of William Goebel and who has been a fugitive from justice, was arrested by Sheriff Broughton at Pineville Saturday evening. The arrest was a piece of unusual courage. Howard was daring and went about with a heavy body guard. Sheriff determined to retire from office January 1 without any papers unserved was looking for an opportunity when he could get a drop and it came. The sending off of messages pertaining to the arrest was prohibited and at night Sheriff and posse left for Frankfort, but not until an attempt had been made to rescue prisoner. It was 10:20 p. m. Prisoner, Sheriff and posse possessed smoker. Three men, one U. S. Marshall, undertook to have train backed into Middleboro, but were outwitted by engineer and conductor and while they threatened the conductor engineer opened wide the throttle, conductor stepped aboard and in a moment train was going at 40 miles per hour and Howard was safely incarcerated in the Frankfort jail. Howard says he is innocent and had a bond been assured he would have surrendered long ago.

J. W. JONES.

Church Treasurer Robbed and Murdered in Lexington.

Saturday night near 12 o'clock, J. N. Hawkins, aged about 43 years, of the firm of Hawkins & Sweeney, dry goods merchants, was robbed and shot to death. He is Treasurer of the Broadway Christian church and had been detained at his store later than usual balancing his church books. The assault was made near the Broadway church on Second street as he went home. His wife, alarmed at his absence, notified the police and search was instituted by them and friends. At 3:15 Sunday morning he was found on Second street where he was attacked. He was shot in left eye, the ball passing through the brain, and his skull was fractured in three places. His watch had been taken from the chain, the contents of his pocket book removed, his necktie pulled in two and button holes pulled out, indicating a struggle. He was unconscious when found and continued so until he died Sunday afternoon at 2:30 at St. Joseph's Hospital. Several persons heard the shot. His body had fallen in the shadow of a tree and telephone pole by the curb. The assassin had not been arrested on yesterday morning.

Saved His Life.

"I wish to say that I feel I owe my life to Kodol Dyspepsia Cure," writes H. C. Christensen, of Hayfield, Minn. "For three years I was troubled with dyspepsia so that I could hold nothing on my stomach. Many times I would be unable to retain a morsel of food. Finally I was confined to my bed. Doctors said I could not live. I read one of your advertisements on Kodol Dyspepsia Cure and thought it fit my case and commenced its use. I began to improve from the first bottle. Now I am cured and recommend it to all." Digesta your food. Cures all stomach troubles.

An Evangelist's Story.

"I suffered for years with a bronchial or lung trouble and tried various remedies but did not obtain permanent relief until I commenced using One Minute Cough Cure," writes Rev. James Kirkman, evangelist of Belle River, Ill. "I have no hesitation in recommending it to all sufferers from maladies of this kind." One Minute Cough Cure affords immediate relief for coughs, colds and all kinds of throat and lung troubles. For crop it is unequalled. Absolutely safe. Very pleasant to take, never fails and is really a favorite with the children. They like it.

Health and Beauty.

A poor complexion is usually the result of a torpid liver or irregular action of the bowels. Unless nature's refuse is carried off it will surely cause impure blood. Pimples, boils and other eruptions follow. This is nature's method of throwing off the poisons which the bowels failed to remove. Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers are world famous for remedying this condition. They stimulate the liver and promote regular and healthy action of the bowels but never cause griping, cramps or distress. Safe pills.

Editor Lynch of "Daily Post," Philadelphia, N. J., has tested the merits of Foley's Honey and Tar with this result: "I have used a great many patent remedies in my family for coughs and colds, and I can honestly say your Honey and Tar is the best thing I have ever used. I have ever used and I cannot say too much in praise of it."

F. C. Duerson, druggist.

The man who rides a hobby should be careful that it doesn't run away with him.

An attractive woman thrives on good food and sunshine, with plenty of exercise in the open air. Her form glows with health and her face beams with its beauty. When troubled with a costly habit, she takes a few doses of Herbine to cleanse her system of all impurities. Price, 50 cents. Thos. Kennedy.

How John W. Ross Came to His Death—His Funeral.

From the Liberty Tribune of November 29, published at Liberty, Mo., we take the following: The funeral of John W. Ross, who died at Smithville from the injuries received in a runaway, was held there last Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, conducted by

Eld. P. V. Loos, in the Christian church, of which the deceased was a member. The remains were then brought here and interred in the New cemetery. There was a large crowd at the cemetery. A large number of Old Fellows and Woodmen accompanied the remains here and the interment was with honors of the two orders. Elder Loos made a brief talk at the grave and paid a high tribute to the noble qualities of the deceased.

Mr. Ross was 42 years of age. November 10. He was born in Fleming county, Ky., and has two brothers and one sister living. He came here from Mt. Sterling, Ky., seven years ago. About two years later he went to Smithville and had been manager of a hardware store there for W. B. Leach, of Kearney. The store has had a large business on going to him here.

In the accident that cost Mr. Ross his life, Clay Berry, the driver of the wagonette, was unable to control the frightened horse after a line broke. He jumped also. The last words Mr. Ross said were to his wife, telling her to jump for her life, as he held her arm and assisted her as best he could. Mrs. Ross was badly stunned by striking the ground, and when she regained consciousness no one had found them. She saw her husband lying on the ground, and on going to him heard him breathing heavily. Friends soon arrived. It was about 8:30 at night. Mr. Ross was unconscious of his death.

John Ross was a man who found delight in doing things for the happiness of others, and was a very devoted and kind husband. He, in return, was blessed with a true and loving wife, and she has the sympathy of all in her great sorrow. Mrs. Ross will make her home here with her sister, Mrs. Homer Black.

Now as we have our water works about completed in our street and prepared to squirt water in all kinds of shapes and quantities thru out the city why not turn our attention to the street car business, and as we are short of rolling stock in our city, water works and street rail ways is the main things to start a town on a boom. I was talking to Mr. George Smith of win street on the subject a few days ago and he seemed to be mitemly in favor of it. Jim Tipton says he would be one of the first to vote for a line if it were to start from the depot and go to win street. Mr. George Smith would come down in the city every day if their was street cars passing on his street.

street. I think myself it is most to start on a big fat man like George to have to coon it all the way downtown and back to and three times a week. I am pretty sure was would be in for it. It is no little job calling a horse to and three times a week on a cold day, to leave I will have an extra meeting called and bring the city dads to gather and take a vote on the rolling stock question. I got acquainted with sum to or three emargo capitolist and after per taking of a few drinks of ap wine the street rail road subject was spriged. There were several long green delegates from Smithville present and tha all seemed to be favorably struck on the progic. I wer talking a little with ex senator Dale of Kirking town, he sed he was now president of the poltry road running from neccies to fort Jo Jo on cut throat river. he sed all kinds of hisness is on the boom since the war supply come. we wish had to be careful and not let the water on the stone stone that we use for making blue mud. sum of that blue stuff will war a great if it is got dry, that stuff ought to be halled on easy running spring wagons, then ruff road waggones shales and jars that spit stone in it to dust be fore the go on the street. be careful don't git hard stone for piking purposes tha would brake your little summer crusher all to pieces. do you see the pist captin, its no use talking we are in it now, we have a stand pipe of hundred and fifty feet high chuck full of calamity water rite out of slate creek and don't forget it we have one hundred plugs cocked and primed a waiting any moment to blow out. I brought here and interred in the sterling people out on nothing. I will make a little drop of eight thousand dollars in my business for the benefit of my friends. call and see me while I have the notion, real by jack less follow the band wagon.

Where 'Tis?

Now that we have water works and it has been seen that they work to perfection, why not have some system about our fire. A person hearing the alarm as it is now never knows where the fire is. The writer stood in his yard Tuesday night until he was almost frozen trying to locate the fire. For instance, a colored man was running out the Levee pike with half a dozen dogs and children, mixed, following him. Deputy Sheriff Jones, riding madly up Locust street. Superintendent Stephenson was rushing frantically around from "corner to corner" anxiously asked "where 'tis," while several people were on the top of a house would have all of them looking in different directions yelling "yonder 'tis."

We finally saw a light and got started and turned the wrong corner and when we got pretty near the Grassy Lick pike we heard a man say the fire was out. If you run to the engine house, the chances are they have gone or are in the same fix. The above mentioned people. It is true we have no fire boxes, but until we do get them why not ring the number of the Ward?

Jones is the place if you want to buy a Christmas present that will last.

Some Old Relics.

Col. John Cunningham, one of the "Noble Old Romans," of Bourbon county, has at his country home, "Rosedale," near Evesville, a beautifully carved hardwood flax spinning wheel which has descended to him from its original owners of ninety years ago. The wheel was made by the great grandfather of Judge James Hazelrigg, ex-Chief Justice of the Court of Appeals, for Miss Mary Bean, then fifteen years of age. Miss Bean, afterwards becoming the wife of Senator John Cunningham, the present possessor of the wheel. Another interesting relic of the olden days is a clock made by Thomas and B. B. Marsh, of Paris, in 1825, and now owned by Mr. S. B. Ewalt, of Paris. "Uncle Sam" prizes the old time-piece very highly. It is nine feet in height, weighs a moon's phases and the day of the month correctly. The clock had never been moved from the old Ewalt farm until recently, and had not been wound since the death of Mr. Ewalt's father, which occurred in 1878. A local jeweler went out to the farm, brought the clock to town and cleaned and repaired it. Since then it has kept time remarkably well. Every part of the mechanism is in fine shape. It was made by hand—Paris, (Ky.) News.

Repairing Neatly Done

Never thought of such a
sign for a medicine did you?
Well, it's a good sign for Scott's Emulsion. The body has to be repaired like other things and Scott's Emulsion is the medicine that does it.

These poor bodies wear out
from worry, from over-work,
from disease. They get thin and weak. Some of the new ones are not well made—and all of the old ones are racked
from long usage.

Scott's Emulsion fixes all kinds. It does the work both inside and out. It makes soft bones hard, thin blood red,
weak lungs strong, hollow places full. Only the best materials are used in the patching
and the patches don't show
through the new glow of health.
No one has to wait his turn.
You can do it yourself—your

and the bottle.

Rather Sarcastical.

On the crossing of Main and Mayville streets a few days ago a gentleman whose stalwart rotundity
was indicative of a better nature than his words would indicate, and who was a naturally loud talker,
and talking louder than was natural,
was heard to say to a Doctor: "I have always thought I would like to be a Doctor, so I could kill people and not get hurt for it." This reminds us of an answer that the good Doctor gave a prominent minister of one of our leading churches.
The doctor had been suffering from an abscess and the minister said to him: "I think, doctor, that it is good for doctors to have an abscess."
Why so, sir? "Because, sir, it makes them sympathize with their patients." "No more reason in that sir, than for a preacher to get drunk?"
